

Exhibit 4

I received my packet less than 2 weeks before the vote is due. Because I don't have an attorney, it's up to me to read these documents and seek explanations. Not sure how anyone could read and understand the disclosures with enough time to mail back a vote. If courts have calendar deadlines, why was the mailing of these disclosures not held to the same standards of timeliness?

